Social and Personal

There is to be the usual informal dancing at the Country Club of Virginia this evening after dinner, and the clubhouse is gay in its holiday decorations of yellow and white flowers. The dinner tables, arranged in the main dining-room and the palm-room, will be decorated in vases of chrysanthemums, and the candles will be shaded in white and silver. Tea will be served in the afternoon, and many people will motor out to the club for the afternoon and remain for the dancing.
